just a small town girl, livin' in a lonely world she took the midnight train goin' anywhere...

just a city boy, born and raised in south detroit He took the midnight train goin' anywhere...

a singer in a smoky room, the smell of cheap perfume For a smile they can share the night it goes on and on and on and working hard to get my fill, everybody wants a thrill Payin' anything to roll the dice, just one more time some will win, some will lose some were born to sing the blues oh, the movie never ends it goes on and on and on and on strangers waiting, up and down the boulevard their shadows searching in the

streetlight people, living just to find emotion

streetlight people

This one for them big fans Them great fans, straight cheerleaders Passing, sliding, running around the place Got their muscles out trying not to pout When the crowds booing in their face

Home plate (right there) He's gonna have to slide right in Home plate (right there) He's hittin' the dirt real hard there man Home plate (right there) The catcher's mitt has the ball Home plate (right there) And the umps call him safe, winning point

Sweet Home Alabama (6C and 6P sing)

Big wheels keep on turning Carry me home to see my kin Singing songs about the south-land I miss 'ole' 'bamy once again and I think it's a sin

Well I heard Mister Young sing about her Well I heard ole Neil put her down Well, I hope Neil Young will remember A southern man don't need him around anyhow

Sweet home Alabama
Where the skies are so blue
Sweet home Alabama
Lord, I'm coming home to you

*In Birmingham they love the Gov'nor, boo-hoo-hoo
Now we all did what we could do Now Watergate does not bother me Does your conscience bother you, tell the truth*

Sweet home Alabama
Where the skies are so blue
Sweet home Alabama
Lord, I'm coming home to you, here I come

Sweet home Alabama, oh sweet home
Where the skies are so blue
Sweet home Alabama
Lord, I'm coming home to you
